

871—42.9(22,84A) Disclosure without the consent of the subject.

42.9(1) An open record is routinely disclosed without the consent of the subject.

42.9(2) To the extent allowed by law, disclosure of a confidential record may occur without the consent of the subject. Following are instances where disclosure, if lawful, will generally occur without consent of the subject:

a. For a routine use as defined in rule 42.10(22,84A).

b. To another governmental agency or to an instrumentality of any governmental jurisdiction within or under the control of the United States for a civil or criminal law enforcement activity if the activity is authorized by law, and if an authorized representative of such governmental agency or instrumentality has submitted a written request to the agency specifying the record desired and the law enforcement activity for which the record is sought.

c. To the legislative services agency under Iowa Code section 2A.3.

d. Disclosure in the course of employee disciplinary proceedings.

e. In response to a court order or subpoena.

f. To the citizens' aide under Iowa Code section 2C.9(3).
